WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT YOUR NEW JERSEY REAL ESTATE CE RENEWAL

Learn more and enroll at McKissock.com

Important Dates

Education Due Date: April 30, 2015
If completed after 4/30/15, you are subject to a $200 fine from the NJ-RE Commission in addition to renewal fees
License Renewal Date: June 30, 2015

Requirements

12 Hours of Continuing Education
• 6 Core/Mandatory Hours; at least 2 Hours must be on Ethics
• 6 Elective Hours

Note: Course repetition is permitted in consecutive cycles, but not within the same renewal cycle per the NJ Statute and Rules Continuing Education requirements.

E-Signature

The New Jersey Real Estate Commission requires an affidavit be submitted upon completion of all courses. The McKissock system allows this process to be done electronically as an e-signature.
• You will set up your e-signature when you take your first course online and will be asked to enter your signature at varying times throughout your coursework. The e-signature is CASE sensitive.
• Your e-signature is: ____________________________

Roster Reporting

A roster is a report of your completed course.
When: Every Thursday through March 31, 2015. Beginning April 1, 2015, McKissock will report every business day
Check Your Hours at: http://njrecc.psiexams.com
Renew your license: https://www20.state.nj.us/DOBI_RELOLSRV/LicenseServices
IMPORTANT: Are you renewing for the 2011-2013 cycle? Please contact our Customer Loyalty Team to discuss how this affects your CE hours.

CE Formats

McKissock offers two real estate continuing education formats that are approved by the New Jersey Real Estate Commission
• Online Courses: Over 15 mandatory and elective single courses and a 12-Hour package available. Enroll now.
• Home-Study Correspondence: Look for your correspondence book in the mail or download your copy at McKissock.com for on-the-go learning. Enroll now.

Questions?

We’re here for you 7-Days a week. Call us at 1-800-328-2008
8 AM–8 PM EST M-F / 12:00 – 3:30 PM EST Weekends